A LETTER FROM THE FOUNDER

William James, the father of American psychology once said "The deepest craving of human nature is the need to be appreciated."

Now more than ever, this still remains true. People want to know that they matter, that their contributions have not gone unnoticed and that they're making a positive impact within their social circle, at home and at their place of work.

This quote continues to resonate with me when I think of Administrative Professionals. For the third year in Houston, it is our incredible honor to shine a bright light on Administrative Professionals and their invaluable contributions to their companies through The Admin Awards program. As the proud daughter of an Executive Secretary, it's my tremendous honor to recognize people like my Mother, Jeannette Castellano, who have dedicated their careers to serving as the backbone of their organizations.

As we continue our mission of bringing unbridled recognition of Administrative Professionals to cities across the U.S., we are deeply grateful to those that have taken the time to show their appreciation by participating in the nominations process. We continue to be reminded that the moment an Admin receives notification that they've been nominated for an Admin Award, is the instant that both their heart and mind fully know that the work they're doing is truly making an impact - a moment which could not happen without the support of their executives and coworkers.

While each Admin Awards program produces an incredibly impressive list of finalists and winners, more importantly, the Admin Awards brings joy to thousands of people each year. Thank you, once again, for your continued support as we honor and celebrate another year of superb administrative talent!

With gratitude,

Sunny Nunan

Mary Jane Long

QUATROTAX LLC

{ THE COLLEEN BARRETT AWARD FOR ADMINISTRATIVE EXCELLENCE }

Mary Jane began her career 35 years ago at a small privately-owned company that provided comprehensive property tax administration. During this time, she was asked to handle a variety of functions, which she took on willingly and professionally. Not only did she handle administrative duties, she took care of research, case preparation and client relations in addition to other duties. Mary Jane not only dealt with clients, but tax office and appraisal district staff as well. She had to be compassionate and caring when dealing with clients and firm persistent, courteous and respectful when dealing with the staff at the tax offices and appraisal districts. Mary Jane developed many valuable relationships at the tax offices and appraisal districts which benefited the company as well as our clients. Outside of the office, Mary Jane has followed her granddaughter in Future Farmers of America events, attending her livestock showings regularly. She has also served on a couple of committees at the Houston Live Stock Show and Rodeo and is currently the Administrator of her committee, Rodeo Contestant Services.

Colleen Barrett: Servant Leader and Superstar

When The Admin Awards was launched in 2012, we sat down with Colleen Barrett to ask her for her thoughts and experiences on the administrative profession. Her answers from that September interview, edited for brevity; are below:

What did you like most about being a secretary?

I like to serve so you have to start there. I loved to solve problems. And I loved to give exemplary or positive customer service delivery on behalf of whomever I was working for. Life is all about relationships... you have an opportunity in the administrative group to form more relationships than probably any other position — even much higher up on that so-called ladder because you are very often that first point of contact with the outside world or the customer...life is just one big grassroots campaign as far as I'm concerned.

What did you like the least?

I didn't like anything that was routine. I loved to master projects, but, for example, filing was only interesting to me because I loved to be able to find anything that anyone was looking for ... I've never liked rote work. (But) there's some that goes in every job no matter what position you're in.

What was the most challenging aspect of serving Herb Kelleher?

Being a nanny for 45 years for a man who has always thought he was 17 regardless of any year that was added to his personal calendar!

Herb is 87 and soon to be 88 and he's going on 17. I'm 74 going on 90 because Herb is 87 going on 17. He's a great servant leader. He loves life and you almost can't be around him and not catch that love of life and love of people. He's constantly learning.

And the best aspect?

It was truly feeling his egalitarian spirit and appreciating the fact that he valued my judgment and thinking as a team member.

Did you ever think you would rise from Secretary to President and COO of Southwest Airlines?

Quite honestly it wasn't something I wanted, and I never wanted to be CEO—and I made that very clear to the Board—that isn't my strength.

My strength is customer service and people and everything that touches people, and, honestly, being President and CEO wasn't my favorite position at Southwest...my favorite position was Executive Vice President- Customers. Customer to us means employees, passengers, and shareholders, so I could really touch everything. I could touch every department. And as President...I had to do a lot more external things...I did them...I can't say I hated them...(but) I like to get down and dirty and really roll up my sleeves.

"Be authentic.
Be real.
Remember who you are."

What advice do you have for Admins?

Love. Everybody. Just love. It's a word that corporate America doesn't use very much...always remember where you came from — so that you know how far you've come...I don't think most of us start out thinking we're going to be the President of the United States or the CEO of a company... and I think...be humble and appreciate what you get. To me psychic satisfaction is 10 times more important than pay or title. Be authentic. Be real. Remember who you are.

WINNER { THE ABOVE THE CALL AWARD }

LILAJAN HIBBS

SOUTHWEST AIRLINES

LilaJan has been with Southwest Airlines for a total of twelve years. She was an Admin for five years at the Houston Reservation Center, and has been at Hobby Airport since 2015 in the Station Services Office. Prior to joining Southwest Airlines, she held several Administrative positions in the banking industry, with property management companies, and with her church. Working at Southwest is very rewarding especially since the goal as an Admin is to give exceptional service to our internal Customers, namely our Agents, our Supervisors, and our Managers.

She tries to fulfill their needs, sometimes before they even know that they have one. Her greatest accomplishment, though, has been being married to her wonderful husband Roger for 32 years, and to have raised four successful children.
